Today's Scripture Reading:

Psalm 90 ESV

⁹⁰ Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.² Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.³ You return man to dust and say, "Return, O children of man!"⁴ For a thousand years in your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.⁵ You sweep them away as with a flood; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning;⁶ in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers.⁷ For we are brought to an end by your anger; by your wrath we are dismayed.⁸ You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence.⁹ For all our days pass away under your wrath; we bring our years to an end like a sigh.¹⁰ The years of our life are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty; yet their span is but toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away.¹¹ Who considers the power of your anger, and your wrath according to the fear of you?¹² So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom.¹³ Return, O Lord! How long? Have pity on your servants!¹⁴ Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.¹⁵ Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, and for as many years as we have seen evil.¹⁶ Let your work be shown to your servants, and your glorious power to their children.¹⁷ Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us; yes, establish the work of our hands!
